Douglas Witherup Bio

Douglas Witherup serves as the Executive Director of Church Ministries for his tribe of the Assemblies of God in NC, helping to lead ministry for over 300 churches across the state. He is an author, featured speaker at churches, conferences, and camps, and contributes as an adjunct professor at Southeastern University, Trinity Bible College, and Bridges Christian College. Doug has a B.A. from Southeastern University, an MTh. from the University of Wales, Bangor, and a DMin. from George Fox University under the lead mentorship of Leonard Sweet. Doug has a passion for communicating God's Word with creativity, speaking life into leaders, and building great teams. He enjoys traveling, the outdoors, reading, and writing. Most of all, Doug loves to spend time with his wife Camden, son Cade, and daughter Ana, especially if it involves going to the beach, the lake, or eating at Gary's BBQ.

Book Endorsements

“Interrobang Preaching calls out to the tribe of preachers to rise up and embrace their calling with renewed passion and renewed style to reach this generation.”

— Mark Batterson, New York Times bestselling author and Lead Pastor of National Community Church

“A sparkling presentation on what it means to preach like Jesus.”

— Leonard Sweet, bestselling author and professor (George Fox University, Drew University)

“Training preachers to communicate God’s word with clarity and creativity is of utmost importance. Doug will inspire and instruct you on how to do both.”

— Rev. Wilfredo "Choco" DeJesus, Senior Pastor of New Life Covenant Church, Author of In the Gap, and one of Time Magazine's Top 100 Influential People

“There are thousands of books on preaching. This one stands out. Doug will inspire you to preach with meaningful connection and lasting influence, while giving you a dramatic view of the greatest preacher of all.”

— Dr. Kent Ingle, President of Southeastern University and author of This Adventure Called Life

What Others Are Saying (Book)

“After reading Interrobang Preaching, I’ve been getting comments like, ‘Best message I’ve heard.’”

— David Jacobs, campus pastor, cfa Church, Concord, NC

“I’m only two chapters in and my entire mindset on preaching has changed.”

— Kayla Marcantonio, Student Pastor, Pineville, LA

“This book made me want to become a preacher all over again.”

— Marcus Dolphens, Associate Pastor, Hickory First Assembly

“A God-Send. The book the Holy Spirit authored through you has truly challenged, inspired and captivated my spirit. By the Lord’s help, I endeavor to preach like Jesus.”

— John Walker, Lead Pastor, Beyond the Veil

“Awesome! Thanks for reigniting the passion and importance of preaching again in me!”

— Mark Ivey, Lead Pastor, Christ Alive Church

“I wish I would have had this book when I began my ministry! I’m ordering copies for my staff.”

— Bill Ballance, Lead Pastor, Central Assembly, Great Falls, MT

What Others are Saying (Workshops)

“We brought Dr. Doug Witherup and Interrobang Preaching to our conference. Our leaders were engaged, challenged, and inspired to become better communicators as well as preachers. We ended up buying books for everyone at the conference. The positive feed back was tremendous! ‘Best conference ever.’”

— Bob Sandler, South Carolina District Youth Director

“Doug presented this material at our Vision Conference, and it was amazing!”

— Juan Acuna, District Youth Director, Southwest Latin

“Powerfully simple and immediately practical. More than a temporary event, the Interrobang Preaching Workshop provided my team with lasting practical applications. The opportunity to network and engage such content at this level should not be missed.”

— Nate Drye, Lead Pastor, Abundant Life Church, Glen Burnie, MD

“Doug presented some of this material to our students at Southeastern University. I’ve been of the school of thought that ‘preaching’ does not end when the sermon does - that God works in a supernatural way through and after a sermon. Interrobang is the only book I’ve read that not only acknowledges the encounter phase of communication, but actually endorses and develops it in a communicator. So glad Doug has reintroduced the truth about the power of God back into preaching. Our students were engaged and challenged.”

— J.J. Vasquez, Youth Ministry Professor, Southeastern University
